1 People who stay in hotels usually use a suitcase. In contrast, people who do a lot of walking prefer backpacks.

(for instance)
2 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(in addition)
3 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(in contrast)
4 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(moreover)
5 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(however)
6 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(after that)
7 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

(consequently)
8 ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________
1. People who stay in hotels usually use a suitcase. In contrast, people who do a lot of walking prefer backpacks.

2. Some of my friends are really annoying. For instance, when they are chatting on their phone, they ignore me completely.

3. You can use your computer to download music. In addition, it’s great for doing research for assignments.

4. Keiko loves active sports such as boxing. In contrast, she also loves wearing traditional Japanese clothes.

5. Jane is unhappy these days. So she doesn’t like getting up in the morning. Moreover, she spends too much money.

6. Jim would love to buy a car. However, a bicycle would be cheaper and better for the environment.

7. At the airport, people have to check in for their flights. After that, they go to wait at the boarding gate.

8. He drove carelessly. Consequently, he had an accident.