A Robot Assistant is a Good Idea

I believe there are three reasons why a robot helper is a good idea. First, a robot helper can provide you with everyday information. You can ask it questions. For example, you might ask your robot questions about the time, the weather, the air quality and anything else that crosses your mind. Second, a robot helper can do simple tasks. It can sweep the floor, turn on the lights and do other useful tasks around the house. Third, a robot helper can provide companionship. You can chat with it and play games with it and your loneliness will disappear. In conclusion, a robot helper can make your house comfortable and friendly, especially if you live alone.
