

Answer the questions using “used to” where possible.

1. How did people take notes in the past ?

How do people take notes today?

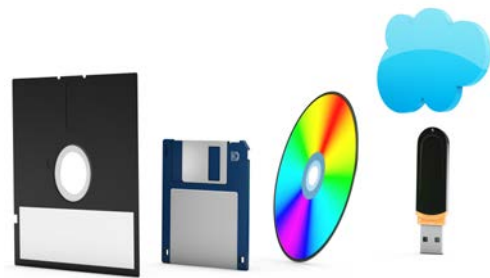

2. What did he use to look like?

How does he look now?

3. What kind of hairstyle did she use to have?

What's her hair like now?

4. Where did people use to store data?

Where do people store data now?

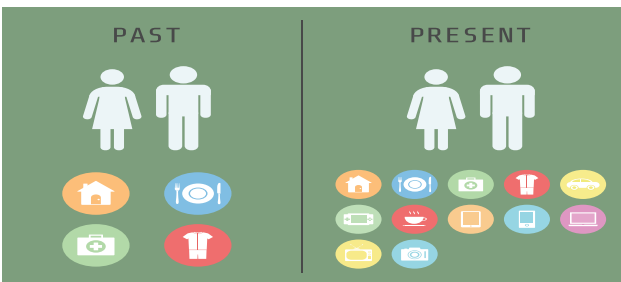

5. What was the wardrobe like in the past?

What's the wardrobe like now?

6. What kinds of technologies did people use in the twentieth century?

What kinds of technologies do they use now?

7. What were people's lives like in the past?

What are people's lives like now?

8 How did companies use to produce goods?

How do they produce goods now?

Answers

1. How did people take notes in the past ?

In the past, people used to record information with pencils and paper.

How do people take notes today?

Now, most people use tablets and other digital technologies to take notes.

2. What did he use to look like?

He used to look scruffy/like a slob/untidy./ He used to be scruffy/a slob.

How does he look now?

He looks smart

3. What kind of hairstyle did she use to have?

She used to have long hair.

What's her hair like now?

She has short hair and big earrings.

4. Where did people use to store data?

People used to store data on floppy disks and CDs

Where do people store data now?

They store data on in the cloud and on usb flash drives.

5. What was the wardrobe like in the past?

The wardrobe used to be

What's the wardrobe like now?

The wardrobe is neat and organized.

6. What kinds of technologies did people use in the twentieth century?

People used to use radios, typewriters. letters, envelopes and stationary telephones.

What kinds of technologies do they use now?

Now people use email, smart phones, flat screen TVs and other digital devices and forms of communication.

7. What were people's lives like in the past?

People lives used to be simpler. People used to have fewer needs.

What are people's lives like now?

People's lives are more complicated./ People have more needs.

8 How did companies use to produce goods?

They used to hire lots of workers.

How do they produce goods now?

They use robots and automation.