Brainstorming First Impressions

Just write down a few ideas.

For example, a place: My first impression of university was....it had lots of trees...the people were friendly...but it was hot!!

What was your first impression of.......

Topic	First Impression
A person Name:
A place Name:
An event Name:
A restaurant Name:
A company Name:
An activity/sport Name:
A subject you study Name:
Qwn idea: Name:
Qwn idea: Name:

First Impressions

What was your first impression of…….

Topic	First Impression
A person Name: Dear (my high school friend)	My first impression of Dear was she was a very polite and calm. It seemed like she had never said anything bad or rude words. However, she was also a kind of slow person. She did everything so slow.
A place Name: HCU	My first impression of HCU was this university was not that big compared with other universities that I had seen before. However, the staffs were nice and the environment looked good.
An event Name: HCU orientation	My first impression of HCU orientation was everyone was so friendly, the activities were fun and interesting. It was a really good event for meeting new people.
A restaurant Name: Chef Man restaurant	My first impression of Chef Man restaurant was it was quite luxurious, the food looked delicious but seemed very expensive.
A company Name: Igloo (Animation making company)	My first impression of Igloo was it was very small. The people there were very nice and friendly. Their work was very interesting.
An activity/sport Name: ATV riding	My first impression of ATV riding was it looked so fun and also adventurous. The ATV cars were so big!
A subject you study Name: Chinese grammar	My first impression of Chinese grammar was everything was so hard. How I can understand all of the subject's contents and pass this subject's exams!
Other Name: Overcooked (pc game)	My first impression of Overcooked was the graphic of the game was so cute but why the gameplay was so hard. I couldn't finish the game for sure.