

they were proud of me

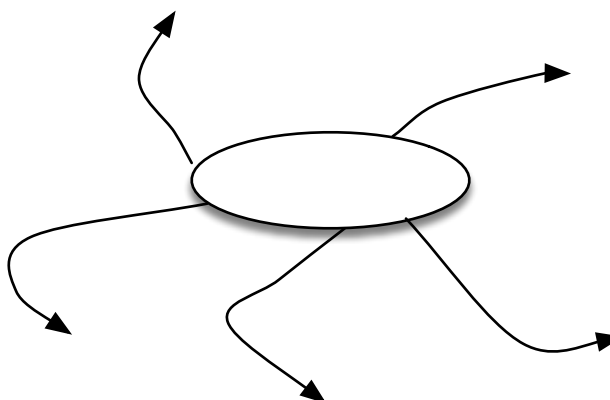

Other reporting verbs

- explain
- describe
- show
- note
- report
- guess
- predict
- suggest
- advise
- insist

Choose your own reporting verbs.

Choose another person and reporting verbs.
ie. The prime minister/ The weather man

Reported speech-some sample sentences

My parents asked me not to come home late.

They told me to stop spending so much money.

They complained that my room was/is messy.

They commented that the traffic jams were very bad this week.

They said I wasted/waste a lot of time playing computer games.

My friend said that the exam was very difficult.

She complained that her teacher never listened/listens to her.

She commented that she wanted/wants to be a flight attendant.

My friend guessed that my boyfriend broke up with me.

She told me she's going to see a movie tomorrow.

She asked if I wanted/want to go with her.

My teacher asked me to hand in the homework by next Friday.

Our teacher complained that we always played/play games on our smartphones in class.

My teacher predicted that I would fail this course.

Our teacher said she'd forgotten to bring the assignment.