

Verb-noun collocations

1. She often _____

2. They want to _____ in their community by picking up trash.

3. We need to _____ if we want to be successful.

4. He always _____ his mother's _____

5. They climbed to the top. They had wanted to _____ this _____ for a long time.

6. We can _____ a lot of _____ if we practice everyday.

7. We can _____ if we work together.

8. She decided she needed to _____ to her appearance.

9. Her counselor often _____ her _____ she doesn't like to hear.

achieve a goal make progress change her mind make a difference set goals give advice make changes follow advice change the world

Complete the sentences above using the phrases below. Then answer the questions.

1. When do you sometimes change your mind?
2. What goal are you setting for yourself this year?
3. What change would you like to make in your life? Explain
4. How can you you make a difference to your community?
5. When do you feel like you're making progress? Explain.....

Script and answers

Number 1

Yes, no maybe. I'm not sure what I should do. I have trouble making decisions. I often change my mind.

Number 2

We want to make a difference in our community by picking up trash. We want the world to be a cleaner, greener place.

Number 3

This is our target for this year. We need to set goals if we want to be successful.

Number 4

My mother said, if I get good grades, my life will be easier in the future. I think she's right. I always follow my mother's advice.

Number 5

I'm so exhausted, but we made it.

Yes! Look at the view! We finally climbed to the top. We've wanted to achieve this goal for a long time.

Number 6

Practice makes perfect! We can make a lot of progress, if we practice every day.

Number 7

People from every country should help each other. We can change the world if we work together.

Number 8

I decided I needed to make changes to my appearance. So I had a make-over. I feel so much more confident.

Number 9

He said I was lazy and needed to have more self-discipline. My counselor often gives me advice I don't like to hear.