

Listen to the examples. Then use ed/ing adjectives to write sentences about the pictures. Adjectives to use: relaxed/ing, bored/ing, confused/ing, annoyed/ing, disappointed/ing, excited/ing, disgusted/ing, frightened/ing, tired/ing, shocked/ing, relaxed/relaxing, exhausted/ing.

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____

5 _____

6 _____

7 _____

8 _____

9 _____

10 _____

Script

Number 1

She finds cooking with many ingredients really confusing.

It's really confusing sometimes, to find exactly what she wants.

Number 2

She was disappointed, by the gift her boyfriend gave her.

It was such a disappointing gift.

Number 3

She hates housework. She finds it really tiring!

She said, "I'm so tired", after she finished the ironing.

Number 4

This guy follows me everywhere. I get really annoyed when I see him

Every time I look round, he's there. Is he stalking me? Anyway, he's really annoying.

Number 5

She was excited, when she heard the gossip. She got really excited, because it was about her best friend.

Number 6

I was shocked and frightened. by the arrival of a U-F-O..! It was frightening to think that aliens were finally here!

Number 7

She is annoyed because she has too many apps on her phone. It's annoying because she can't find Instagram.

Number 8

She got really exhausted, when she worked overtime.

This company job is extremely exhausting!

Number 9

This picture is totally confusing.

Every time I look at it, I get, more and more confused.

Number 10

She just found some very relaxing music.

She feels so relaxed when she listens to her favorite songs.