

Talking about childhood (using “use to/used to”)

Willow: Kieran, tell me about your childhood.

Kieran: I had a .....

Willow: How fun! What do you .....

Kieran: Oh,..... For example, we ..... “hide and seek” around the trash cans.

Willow: Are you serious?.....!

Kieran: Yeah, it was. We got .....! And my parents got ..... So Willow, what sort of things did you.....? .....play hide and seek?

Willow: Yes, I used to play with my friends. But I .....anyone.

Kieran: .....! How did that make you feel?

Willow: I .....very silly. And, after that, I.....

Kieran: Oh dear!

Willow: No problem! I .....sports like basketball, and my team was very good. We .....nearly every game.

Kieran:.....!

Willow: Kieran, tell me about your childhood.

Kieran: I had a naughty childhood.

Willow: How fun! What do you remember about it?

Kieran: Oh, lots of things. For example, we used to play "hide and seek" around the trash cans.

Willow: Are you serious? How disgusting!.

Kieran: Yeah, it was. We got really dirty! And my parents got quite angry. So Willow, what sort of things did you use to do? Did you use to play hide and seek?

Willow: Yes, I used to play with my friends. But I couldn't find anyone.

Kieran: How embarrassing! How did that make you feel?

Willow: I used to feel very silly. And, after that, I didn't play any more.

Kieran: Oh dear!

Willow: No problem! I learnt to play sports like basketball, and my team was very good. We used to win nearly every game.

Kieran: Good for you!
