Hi everyone. My name's Janice. Here are some of my likes and dislikes.

I can never make up my mind. So you'd have to say, I don't like making decisions.

And my boss gives me so much work. And I have to work overtime. I really don't like my job.

But, I probably won't quit my job yet, as the money is good, and I love making money.

And my other likes. I'm really good at statistics. I love statistics and maths.

Also, I like learning and speaking English. I love communicating with people from different cultures.

However, while I like talking to people face to face, I don't like talking on the phone.

I'm a marketer, and I think I'm good at my job. I really enjoy brainstorming, and planning projects.

Also, when my projects increase our profits, I'm very happy. I love being successful.

However, I have a problem with my boyfriend. I really don't like him, when he speaks loudly.

My name's Adam. Here are some of my likes and dislikes.

I like to buy clothes. And I always have the latest hairstyles. This is because I really like to look good.

Another of my likes is taking photographs. I like travelling and taking photos.

One more thing I like to do. I really like reading newspapers, as I like knowing what's happening, in the world.

On the other hand, I don't like rats. I think they are really dirty animals.

Also, I'm a very honest person. And I don't like people who tell lies..
