6. Tattoos and piercings are interesting but I wouldn't do it. For example, I think that tattoos and piercings can be a form of self-expression. However, I think that they can also be seen as a form of rebellion. I would not want to get a tattoo or piercing because I do not want to rebel against society.
7. People who wear a lot of makeup look better than people who don't. I think that people who wear a lot of makeup look more polished and put together. I think that people who don't wear makeup look more natural and relaxed.
8. People's appearance is a reflection of their personality. For example, I think that people who dress in a way that is unique and different are more likely to be creative and open-minded. I think that people who dress in a more traditional way are more likely to be conservative and traditional.
9. I think people who dress in one color look boring. For example, I often see people who dress in all black or all white. I think that this looks boring and it is not very interesting.
