

Comparison Essay

High School Students and University Students

Read the information given and complete the essay.

ATTENTION GETTER_____

TOPIC SENTENCES_____

First of all, university students have more responsibilities than high school students. They have to be more independent and make decisions by themselves. For example, they have to manage their schedules and do assignments. In contrast, high school students just have to follow the rules and obey their teachers.

Second, high school students usually have more fun than university students. Their lives are not so serious. They are more carefree and they do more fun activities. University students, however, often don't have much free time. And they are more stressed because their exams are more serious.

Finally, university students mix with a wider range of people. They meet different kinds of people. They have to start to learn to live in the real world. As a consequence, most university students become more open minded. High school students, on the other hand, live in a smaller, narrower world. They usually go to school with people similar to themselves. They live similar lives and think alike. No one challenges their ideas.

CONCLUSION_____

Comparison paragraph (possible answer) High school students and university students

ATTENTION GETTER: Education is very important for society. It is very important in the development of the individual, too.

TOPIC SENTENCES : However, there are many methods of learning and ways to develop students' skills, so it's very difficult to work out which are the best paths to educational success. Nothing demonstrates this more than the differences between the lifestyles of high school students and university students.

First of all, university students have more responsibilities than high school students. They have to be more independent and make decisions by themselves. For example, they have to manage their schedules and do assignments. In contrast, high school students just have to follow the rules and obey their teachers.

Second, high school students usually have more fun than university students. Their lives are not so serious. They are more carefree and they do more fun activities. University students, however, often don't have much free time. And they are more stressed because their exams are more serious.

Finally, university students mix with more people. They meet different kinds of people. They have to start to learn to live in the real world. As a consequence, most university students become more open minded. High school students, on the other hand, live in a smaller, narrower world. They usually go to school with people similar to themselves. They live similar lives and think alike. No one challenges their ideas.

CONCLUSION:

In conclusion, it seems clear that different educational situations and environments suit different age groups. Is this really true? Or do we just rely on ideas handed down from earlier generations? Perhaps, we need to try and pick the best features of the lifestyles of high school students and university students. Then we might be able to create better educational systems for the 21st century.