

Travel problems

Label the pictures with the following vocabulary. Then explain what's happening in each picture.

seat, aisle, passenger, child, impatient, hurry, taxi, overbooked, cab, squashed, pick-up, crying, claim, arguing, tickets, suitcase, baggage, traveler, damaged, passenger, motion sickness, redeye, airplane, flight, man, asleep, falling, screaming

Create short conversations about the above situations using the vocabulary and sentences above and try to expand:

A: What's the problem in picture 1?

B: _____

A: What should he do about it?

B: _____

Vocabulary Matching

1. Suitcase, Passenger, Impatient - Picture 1 shows a man who seems impatient and possibly worried about a suitcase.
2. Aisle, Passengers, Overbooked - Picture 2 depicts two passengers squeezed into aisle seats, suggesting the flight might be overbooked.
3. Baggage, Damaged, Claim, Man - Picture 3 shows a man at baggage claim with a damaged suitcase.
4. Taxi, Squashed, Pick-up, - Picture 4 illustrates an impatient passenger who is in a hurry.
5. Seat, Passenger, Asleep, Falling - Picture 5 depicts a sleeping passenger who is falling onto another passenger's shoulder.
6. Traveler, Motion Sickness, Asleep - Picture 6 shows a traveler who appears to have motion sickness while another passenger is asleep.
7. Passenger, Seat, tickets, overbooked- Picture 7 features a passengers arguing about where to sit.
8. Screaming, Child, Arguing, Tickets ,Crying - Picture 8 depicts a mother and a screaming child

Example Short Conversations

Picture 1:

A: What's the problem in picture 1? B: The man looks worried. Maybe his suitcase is lost or delayed.

A: What should he do about it? B: He should go to the baggage claim office and report it. They can help track it down.

Picture 2:

A: What's the problem in picture 2? B: The passengers look uncomfortable. It might be because the flight is overbooked and the aisle is crowded.

A: What should they do about it? B: They could speak to the flight attendant to see if there are any available seats or request assistance to make their flight more comfortable.

Picture 3:

A: What's the problem in picture 3? B: It seems the man's suitcase got damaged during the flight.

A: What should he do about it? B: He needs to file a claim at the airline's baggage service to get compensation for the damage.

Picture 4:

A: What's the problem in picture 4? B: The passenger is angry and impatient which is causing the driver distress.

A: What should he do about it? B: He should tell the passenger to calm down.

Picture 5:

A: What's the problem in picture 5? B: One passenger is asleep and leaning on another, invading his personal space.

A: What should he do about it? B: He could gently wake the sleeping passenger and ask him to sit up or alert a flight attendant for help.

Picture 6:

A: What's the problem in picture 6? B: The man seems to be suffering from motion sickness, while his neighbor is fast asleep.

A: What should he do about it? B: He should use the airsickness bag if necessary and alert the cabin crew who can provide assistance or medication.

Picture 7:

A: What's the problem in picture 7? B: The two passengers are arguing about their seats. It looks like there's some confusion over who is in the correct seat. Maybe the flight is overbooked.

A: What should they do about it? B: They should calmly compare their boarding passes and check the seat numbers. If they can't resolve it, they should ask a flight attendant to help them find the right seat

Picture 8:

A: What's the problem in picture 8? B: A screaming child is annoying other passengers.

A: What should the mother do about it? B: She should try to calm the children and speak to the cabin crew to find a solution.