

Journalist

Santa

Good evening/thank you/busy schedule

Ho ho ho/pleasure/preparations/well

How many letters/children/this year?

Millions/elves/overtime/sort them

Most popular gift/request/this year?

Can't reveal/secrets/video games/popular

How/reindeer/fly/world/one night?

Christmas magic/Rudolph/guide/storms

Still enjoy/milk and cookies?

Yes/chocolate chip/favorite/Mrs Claus/diet

Most challenging part/your job?

Staying quiet/delivering/creaky floors

Last question/Christmas message/everyone?

Be kind/Christmas/giving/not receiving

Santa Interview Role Play Script

Journalist: Oh good evening Santa! Thank you for taking time from your busy schedule.

Santa: Ho ho ho! It's my pleasure. Christmas preparations are going well!

Journalist: Amazing! How many letters have you received from children this year?

Santa: Millions! My elves have been working overtime to sort them all.

Journalist: Incredible! What's the most popular gift request this year?

Santa: Well, I can't reveal too many secrets, but video games are very popular!

Journalist: Oh really? That's interesting! So tell me, how do your reindeer manage to fly around the world in one night?

Santa: That's Christmas magic! And Rudolph's nose helps guide us through stormy weather.

Journalist: Fascinating! Do you still enjoy milk and cookies?

Santa: Oh yes! The chocolate chip ones are my favorite. Mrs. Claus says I need to watch my diet though!

Journalist: Ha ha ha. And, what's the most challenging part of your job?

Santa: Staying quiet when delivering presents - those creaky floorboards can be tricky!

Journalist: Hmm..I can imagine! One last question - what's your Christmas message for everyone?

Santa: Be kind to each other, and remember - Christmas is about giving, not just receiving!